

Volos

Location

Volos is located in the area of Magnesia and near the North Sporades Islands and has the third largest commercial port in the country.

Surroundings

Volos combines the sea of Pagasitikos with mountain Pelion. It is cold in winter and there is a lot of snow in the villages of Pelion. It is rather hot in summer and people can enjoy the beaches all around the city.

Volos is a beautiful city where you can walk easily and you can get to know it quickly. It has nice modern buildings but among them you can also find old houses especially in the area called "Palaia".

Activities

The city of Volos is mostly known for its traditional local restaurants known as “tsipouradika” where hundreds of visitors can taste delicious local dishes like seafood, drink tsipouro, a local alcoholic beverage, and enjoy the spectacular view of the Gulf.

In Volos you can also go swimming in one of the countless beaches in the Pagasitikos Gulf or in Pelion in summer, while in winter you can go skiing in the snowing centre of the mountain.

No matter what type of person you are, you will enjoy your visit in Volos.
