Kylie Cantrall

- 1 Kylie Cantrall was born on June 20, 2004, in Los Angeles, California, U.S.A. She was exposed to performing arts, including music and dance at a young age, thanks to her parents' profession. While her father, Alex Cantrall, is a music producer, her mother is a dancer. Kylie Cantrall started singing at the age of two, and also accompanied her mother to her dance rehearsals and shows. She also met famous personalities from the music industry as she would often accompany her father to recording sessions.
- 2 Kylie Cantrall created her YouTube channel "Hello Kylie" on April 30, 2014, when she was just 8 years old. She then started posting a series of videos titled "Hello Kylie" that gathered thousands of views. Among her videos were covers of songs by singers like Zayn, Ariana Grande, Beyoncé, and Selena Gomez.

3 Her popularity increased when she started collaborating with artists like Zedaya and Johnny Orlando. In 2016, she released official music videos of songs like "Sleep is for Suchas" and "Abraca Dab Bruth". In the same year she collaborated with Hayden Summerhall for a duet. In 2017, she recorded a single titled "Feature from Quavo" and then released the music video of "Shake" in October 2017 on YouTube.

4 Also Kylie Cantrall is an American actress, social media personality, singer and dancer. She is best known for playing Gabby Duran in the comedy television series "Gabby Duran and the Unsittables".
